Dear ¡Hiring Manager's Name¿,

I am writing to express my interest in the ¡Job Title¿ role at ¡Company Name¿. With over four years of experience spanning full-stack and front-end engineering, I have consistently delivered impactful, user-centric solutions while mentoring teams and contributing to high-scale product development.

At Spotdraft, I worked on mission-critical projects such as email customization, summary page revamp, and contract metadata management, taking ownership of both front-end architecture and cross-functional collaboration. My contributions included building reusable components, improving developer tooling, reducing QA bottlenecks, and designing intuitive user experiences—ultimately enhancing product adoption and customer satisfaction. I also authored specifications, drove testing culture, and mentored new engineers, which helped scale the team's efficiency.

Previously at Interbiz Consulting Pvt. Ltd., I served as a Full-stack Software Engineer where I designed complex reusable components (such as multi-level tabular UIs handling 10,000+ rows), implemented IoT polling systems using Azure Functions, and led a team of four engineers. My leadership improved team productivity by 10% and ensured timely, reliable project delivery.

Across these roles, I have honed expertise in JavaScript, TypeScript, Angular, Node.js, and modern front-end architectures, with additional backend exposure in C#, .NET Core, and databases like PostgreSQL/MySQL. My recent focus includes advancing full-stack capabilities and deepening my system design knowledge to prepare for senior engineering responsibilities.

I am particularly drawn to ¡Company Name¿ because of [specific reason tailored to company/project/domain], and I am eager to bring my blend of technical depth, ownership, and collaborative mindset to help drive impactful outcomes for your team.

Thank you for considering my application. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background and skills align with the needs of ¡Company Name¿.

Sincerely,

Sonu Kumar
